

Thinking of you

van het album "Koffers"

I'm searching for my soul
'cause somehow
I just lost it somewhere.
I'm so out of control
'Cause without you I'm going nowhere

Everybody tells me that I have to let you go and they try to help me but every time they find me looking around for you, and

[chorus]
All the time I'm thinking of you,
all the time I do.
All the time I'm thinking of you,
all the time I do.

I'm searching for my heart
'cause somehow
I just lost it somewhere.
Right there from the start you stole it and you took it nowhere

You said I was your princess ,
And I believed this fairytale.
Now you left me helpless and when I try to get you out of my mind I fail, 'cause

[chorus]

All the time I tell myself
it never would work out,
But then I'm going crazy and I'm crying in the crowd.

[chorus]
